

Great white shark

Carcharodon carcharias

Fact: Great white shark eyes roll back inside the eye socket just before grabbing their prey. This protects against damage, especially from the sharp claws of a seal.

